

BOGAZICI UNIVERSITY SOCIAL POLICY FORUM WORKSHOP on CONTEMPORARY CHALLENGES TO SOCIAL POLICY

5 June 2015

Senate Room, Rectorate Building

Opening Remarks (09.30 – 09.50)

Ali Tekcan, Provost, Bogazici University

Ayşe Buğra, Director, Social Policy Forum

Social Policy, the Changing World of Labour (09.50 – 11.15)

Nick Ellison (University of York), “The End of 'Solidarity'? (Neo)liberalisation in European labour Markets”

Theo Papadopoulos (University of Bath), “Democracy and Social Policy: Labour, Austerity and the Decline of the European Social Model”

Coffee Break (11.15 – 11.30)

Globalization, Crisis and Social Policy Today (11.30 – 13:00)

Alexandra Kaasch (University of Bielefeld), “The New Politics of Crisis Management: Global voices on the role of social policies”

Andrew Fischer (International Institute of Social Studies, Erasmus University Rotterdam), “Conceiving of Universalism in Social Policy for Global Application beyond Welfare State Typologies”

Lunch (13.00 – 14.30)

Welfare Regime Change and New Patterns of Social Exclusion: Views from Turkey (14.30 – 16.00)

Ayşe Buğra (Bogazici University), “Rethinking unequal citizenship in a late industrializing country”

Başak Ekim Akkan (Bogazici University and University of Utrecht), “Contested boundaries of the welfare mix in Turkey: Supported familialism in a Mediterranean context”

İpek Göçmen (Bogazici University) and Volkan Yılmaz (Bogazici University and Bilgi University), “Social exclusion of LGBTI individuals at the intersection of heterosexism and familialism”

 The workshop will be in English. There will not be any simultaneous translation.